

Current System

Local governments bear all burden of funding residential recycling, and it's not enough to sustain or improve the system.

Proposed System

Funding is injected from private-sector packaging and printed paper fees and public-sector disposal surcharges to sustain and improve the system.

